include a ten-wheel plow truck and road reconstruction funds for the highway department; a Chevrolet Tahoe 4X4 police pursuit vehicle for the police department; a new scale weighing demo material for the transfer station, and two portable ventilators for fire rescue. In all cases these will be paid for in full or in part by alternate funding sources as spelled on the ballot.

Employment Changes

Two articles moved to the ballot would change part-time to full-time employees. One would make the assistant library director a full-time position and a second would change a highway department employee from part-time to full-time.

Special Funds

There are three articles that were moved from the warrant to the ballot, which change or establish special funds. The town will be asked to amend the Transfer Station Recyclable Special Revenue Fund; to establish a revolving fund for Fire and Rescue details; and to establish a Parks and Recreation Land Purchase and Development Fund. The details for each of these changes are included on the ballot.

Solar Grant

The town will be asked to raise and appropriate $119,200 for the purpose of installing a solar array on the safety complex. This money has already been awarded to the town through a grant pursued by the Weare Energy Commission. This article is a formality to complete the process of accepting the money.

Voting on the town and school warrants will be on March 10 at Weare Middle School from 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m.

Few Changes Made to Warrant At Town Deliberative Session

By Tom Clow

Fifty-seven registered voters attended the Town of Weare Deliberative Session on Saturday, January 31 to debate the articles on the 2026 town warrant. That number represents less than 1% of the 6,409 eligible voters on the town checklist. The deliberative session gave voters in attendance a chance to offer their opinions on articles and to propose amendments. Although the meeting started at 9:00 a.m. and extended well into the afternoon, when all was said and done, more was said than done, with few changes made to the warrant articles as presented by the Board of Selectmen. An article for $10,000 to provide fireworks at the patriotic celebration caused much debate, but an attempt to amend the article to zero dollars failed.

Operating Budget; Non-Union Raises

Many of the articles, which will now appear on the ballot on March 10, will be familiar to voters, starting with a proposed operating budget of $9,638,402. Two articles relate to pay increases including a 3% cost of living increase for all non-union town and library personnel except the town administrator. The Fire and Rescue Department is proposing an Annual Performance Evaluation Step Increase Policy. Chief Mark Roarick explained that step increases are common for fire rescue employees in most other towns and without it his department is losing employees to those towns.

CIP Requests

All articles that went through the Capital Improvement Program (CIP) process will be moved to the ballot. These

News from the Town Clerk

By Pamela J. Moul - Town Clerk

Upcoming closures for the Town Clerk's office:

- Monday, February 16 - Presidents Day.
- Tuesday March 10 - Town Election

We are excited to report that in the month of January, we licensed over 585 dogs, which beat the January 2025 total of 253. We have had a great response to our Top Dog contest which gives all households that license their dogs before the April 30th deadline a raffle ticket to win one of three gift baskets sponsored by local businesses and non-profit organizations. Make sure to license your dog before April 30th to get your raffle ticket!

Once again we are partnering with the Weare Animal Hospital to offer a Rabies Clinic on Thursday, March 19 from 5:30-7:00 p.m. at the Old Town Hall, 16 N. Stark Hwy. Vaccinations are $10 per animal. We will accept cash or checks payable to the Town of Weare.

Don't forget to vote on March 10 at the Weare Middle School. Polls will be open from 7 a.m. - 7 p.m. We are going to be using our new ballot tabulators. The new devices take an actual scan of each ballot and will indicate to voters that the ballot was cast via a display screen. It is estimated this may take about 20-25 seconds to cast a four-page ballot.

The Supervisors of the Checklist will be meeting on Saturday, February 28 at 10 a.m. to make corrections to the checklist. Anyone wishing to register to vote may do so at this time. Please review our website (<https://www.weare.nh.gov/town-clerk/pages/voter-registration>) for required voter registration documents.

Backyard Winter Bird Survey

New Hampshire residents are invited to count backyard birds from February 14-15. This survey is hosted by NH Audubon Society. This beloved science project encourages participants of all ages and experience levels to count the birds (and squirrels) visiting their backyards and help track long-term trends in winter bird populations across the state.

Participation is simple and flexible. Participants can count birds for as little as 15 minutes or as long as they'd like over the two-day period. Counts can be done from a window or outdoors (coffee or hot chocolate optional).

What if I count the same bird twice? The count is based on the number of birds at any point in time. For instance if you see 2 cardinals at 8 a.m., but later at 4 p.m. you see 5, you would report that as 5 cardinals. Any bird seen in the backyard counts. Observations are submitted through an easy to use online survey form:

<https://backyardwinterbirds.nhaudubon.org/submit-your-data/> The same website provides species profiles including identification tips, look-alike species, and simple actions people can take to help birds through the winter.

Each year brings surprises, from first-time sightings of Carolina Wrens to rare winter visitors. In 2025, eight participants reported Baltimore Orioles, a species rarely seen in New Hampshire during winter. With rumors of an Evening Grosbeak irruption this season, survey organizers are eager to see what participants discover.

Last year, a record 1,953 people took part in the survey. That year, the most commonly reported bird was the Dark-eyed Junco, with 10,490 individuals counted statewide. With help from participants across the state, NH Audubon hopes to surpass that milestone again in 2026 and find out which species will top the list this year.

The Backyard Winter Bird Survey relies on donations to support data collection, analysis, and outreach. Participation is free; donations are appreciated but not required.

Legion Auxiliary - Junior Members

By Ellie Chapman -

Member Philbrick Clement Post 65

We continue to look forward at all of our upcoming activities in 2026, some of which have been a part of our community for years and some are fairly new. We will work towards improving them and hope to bring in more folks to participate and enjoy them.

While thinking along that line, we'd like to remind folks that we also have a few junior members, 17 or under, and would love to welcome more junior members to the Auxiliary. As a junior member you are welcome to attend our meetings and join in discussions and planning for upcoming events and meeting topics. There are lots of opportunities to volunteer at community events, bake sales, poppy drives, our annual quilt raffle, annual BBQ, Veteran-focused events, bake sales and more.

If you are needing to fulfill volunteer requirements, this may be a great opportunity. As a junior you can learn ways to raise awareness and support our veterans, their families and your community.

For more information, or to check if you are eligible to join, feel free to drop by a meeting, held on the first Wednesday of the month at 6:30 p.m. for more information or at www.ALforVeterans.org. Our next meeting will be March 4 at 6:30 p.m. at the Legion Hall.

I'd like thank our community again for all of the support you have given us to help make our fundraising efforts a success.

New Boots

He was almost two years old
wearing his new boots,
his first pair of boots,
LL Bean kind with laces, he liked their feel and sound as he stomped around the room
giggling showing
them to everyone,
he stopped often to admire them, try
other antics, skip,
but, loud stomping was
his favorite thing.

I WASN'T DONE TALKING TO YOU

I wasn't done talking to you.
Why did you leave when you knew we weren't thru?

It was so easy to reach you - by email or text
So, to be honest, this has me vexed.

You were, who I turned to, for so many things.

We talked about writing – how best to proceed.
This piece isn't clear. What else does it need?

You were my go-to for brilliance to share.
Many an author I told you had flare.
Now, when I read, sometimes I just stare.

We talked some of empathy, holding your tongue.
Maybe I too was like that when so young.

You listened to problems from time to time.
Mentioned solutions that worked out just fine.

You thought I was brilliant, accomplished and grand
Without you around, I risk being bland.
I know you were biased, you have to admit
But you raised my spirits, so I didn't quit.

Now who do I turn to when I want to say
How did you cope with that - back in your day?

The bar was set high when you were around
Such a big loss could sure get me down.

What are you thinking that I should do now?
I guess ..... carry on .... somehow.

The Snow Lay on the Ground

It fell from above,
covered ground below,
snow, snow and more snow
bleakness of winter
lessened with fluffy snow, dressing trees in
white, sounds muffled, cocooning us as if
we were part of a Currier and Ives
painting, in our own world.
